

Spiritual Gifts Questionnaire

Instructions:

This is an 'experienced based' questionnaire. The questions are designed on the basis of what you may have experienced in your Christian life to this point.

Don't think over each question too much. In most cases it will be quite obvious to you how to answer the questions.

Answer by placing the appropriate value in the right-hand column.

0 = Never    1 = Rarely    3 = Sometimes    5 = Frequently

When you're finished, transfer your answers to the corresponding box on the score sheet and mark your top 5 totals with a circle.

0 = Never    1 = Rarely    3 = Sometimes    5 = Frequently

1. I find it relatively easy and enjoyable to spend time in bible study and research of a biblical topic.
2. I try to go out of my way to give a cheerful word to people around me and find that I usually encourage people in a general way
3. When someone is not doing a job well, I try to help them be effective in what they're doing
4. I often find myself having an insight about the needs and attitudes of people and that a commitment to change must be given
5. I am very skilled in a number of areas, practically and technically and see this as an important way to serve God
6. I have found that people find me easy to talk to and often have people share with me heart-to-heart
7. I can motivate people to follow through on ideas that I introduce to the group
8. I am certain that God has given me special abilities to make money. I know that this is because he expects to use me as a channel to support his work
9. I have often received feedback from people that I have helped clarify an area of understanding
10. I have often been convinced that God was giving me a message for a person or a group and seen God move the people to respond
11. It has been my experience that I can usually hear a question, interpret it correctly, and gives a helpful answer even if I'm not the speaker
12. In talking with a person in a Christian setting, I have sensed information about the person's life regarding problems or issues they face
13. I don't mind unexpected guests in the home if I know they need our help
14. When I give to someone or something, I prefer to be anonymous
15. I have started new churches from just a small group of Christians
16. I have given financially to programs helping orphans or other underprivileged people
17. I know that I am a sensitive person who often feels people's needs, more than others
18. In a larger group, I have often experienced myself speaking or singing in a different tongue or tone than my usual prayer language
19. I find that I love spending time with those who suffer, and it gives me joy, not depression to help

20. I have often had people ask my opinion and found that I have some immediate advice, either Scriptural or practical, that provides a sound course of action
21. I frequently pray for inner-healing for others, expecting and observing God touch a person with dysfunctional or emotional problems
22. It has often been my experience in a group situation, that I could clearly, though intuitively see what must be done and was able to communicate this
23. I have been compelled to take a stand and speak out for truth in a group meeting
24. It is easy for me to match some bible character or story and draw some practical application to a current situation
25. Sometimes I see pictures in my mind of something that I feel that God wants me to communicate to a group
26. I often find myself recognising the 'real' influence behind things that happen or are said by others
27. I have had the privilege of leading several of my friends, relatives and acquaintances to faith in Christ over the years
28. I have a close inner relationship with God and am sensitive to his voice prompting me, often feeling guided to pray for people I hardly know
29. I am able to give others directions and help them decide, persuading them to see my way of thinking
30. I would have been able to do without things that others consider necessities, in order to give to God's work
31. I have known times when I have had a deep and unshakable confidence in God's ability to fulfil his promise in the face of genuine obstacles
32. Most of my prayers are specific because I want to know when the answer comes
33. I have personally helped several people to grow as Christians and their progress is evident
34. There have been times when I have a conviction from God, to take a risk, trust him and seeing the results, many others have been encouraged to trust God more
35. I like to see things done orderly and want to help improve the organisational systems of the church
36. I love helping other Christians to understand their faith so they can witness to others about the love of God and talk about Jesus without fear
37. I believe God can heal through supernatural means as well as through medical means, but my first inclination is to ask the sick person, 'Has someone prayed for you?'
38. God has used me to bring his power to bear in unusual ways
39. I have seen the need for new ministry and found a way to bring it into existence

40. I have experienced God's power in response to my prayers where natural forces of nature or resources have been overridden by God
41. It is almost second nature for me analyse what a person says to see if it matches what I think Scripture teaches
42. I concentrate more on doing practical things that need to be done rather than on 'why' they should be done
43. When I don't know how to pray for a situation I pray in the Spirit trusting that God is hearing and the Spirit is leading me in prayer
44. People have often come to me to share their dreams or visions or impressions in prayer and want me to assess or interpret them
45. Though I am often called upon to fill leadership roles in the church, I did not have leadership responsibilities as I grew up
46. I have experienced receiving the meaning or interpretation of a message initially given in a tongue by myself or another person
47. I have often been placed on groups to organise ministry events
48. I have known God's power as I prayed for someone and saw the person healed of a physical ailment
49. I love innovative people who come up with great ideas so I can step in behind them and help make it work.
50. I am challenged by the unreached, the needs of the world around me and I'm determined I will do something about it to fulfil the Great Commission
51. I have had the freedom to turn natural conversations with people into a chance to witness about Jesus and the gospel
52. I am presently responsible for the spiritual welfare of a group of people
53. I have experienced God use me in ministry to others who have been instantly set free from spiritual powers
54. I often find myself called upon to listen to people's problems and give counsel because I have the trust of those in the church
